

Office of the Mayor
City of Fayetteville
Proclamation

WHEREAS: the City of Fayetteville acknowledges and celebrates the fact that the United States of America is a nation of immigrants, and our country's cultural and economic richness is rooted in its diversity and its promise of freedom, equality, and opportunity, and

WHEREAS: Fayetteville is a community that values the fresh perspectives and ideas contributed by people of diverse backgrounds and experiences, and is committed to providing a welcoming environment in which all residents have opportunities to strive, grow, and succeed, and

WHEREAS: we as a community are stronger and better when we work together toward those core American values that afford everyone the right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness, and

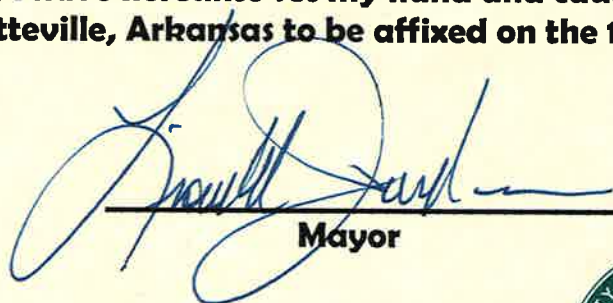

WHEREAS: Fayetteville has defined itself as a place of open hearts and open minds, where all are welcome, regardless of your place of origin, the color of your skin, your form of worship, or who you love; and our community continues to reach out to offer hospitality, acceptance, and tolerance to all.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Lioneld Jordan, Mayor of the City of Fayetteville, Arkansas do hereby proclaim the week of September 15, 2019 as in Fayetteville, Arkansas and call upon the people of Fayetteville to join together to continue to grow strong, inclusive communities—here in Arkansas and across our state and our nation.

"Welcoming Week"

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Fayetteville, Arkansas to be affixed on the 15th day of September, 2019.

Mayor

Attest:

Deputy City Clerk

